

ICMJE Uniform Disclosure Form for Potential Conflicts of Interest

INSTRUCTIONS:

The purpose of this form is to provide readers of your manuscript with information about your other interests that could influence how they receive and understand your work. The form has five parts.

1. Identifying information.

Each author should submit a separate form. Provide complete information and double-check the manuscript number. If you are NOT the corresponding author please insert his or her name.

2. The work under consideration for publication.

Please provide information about the work that you have submitted for publication. The time frame for this reporting is that of the work itself, from the initial conception and planning to the present. The idea is to provide for the reader information about resources that you received, either directly or indirectly (via your institution), to enable you to complete the work. If you check the "No" box it means that you did the work without receiving any financial support from any third party -- that is, the work was supported by funds from the same institution that pays your salary and that institution did not receive third-party funds to pay you. If you or your institution did receive funds from a third party to support the work, check "Yes" along with the appropriate boxes to indicate the type of support and whether you or your institution received it.

3. Relevant financial activities outside the submitted work.

Please report all sources of revenue relevant to the submitted work that accrued either directly to you or were paid to your institution on your behalf over the 36 months prior to submission of the work. This should include all monies from sources with relevance to the submitted work, not just monies from the entity that sponsored the research. If there is any question, it is usually better to disclose a relationship than not to do so. Please note that your interactions with the work's sponsor outside the submitted work should be listed here. For each category list each entity on a separate line. Use as many lines as necessary to provide complete information. In addition, please disclose relationships that fall outside the 36-month window that readers may want to know about and could reasonably criticize you for not disclosing (for example, long-term financial relationships that are now ended).

The goal of this section is to provide information for our reviewers and readers about your interactions with entities in the bio-medical arena that could be perceived to influence, or that give the appearance of potentially influencing, what you wrote in the submitted work. You should disclose interactions with ANY entity that could be considered broadly relevant to the work. For example, if your article is about testing an epidermal growth factor receptor (EGFR) antagonist in lung cancer, you should report all associations with entities pursuing diagnostic or therapeutic strategies in cancer in general, not just in the area of EGFR or lung cancer. For grants you have received for work outside the submitted work, you should disclose support ONLY from entities that could be perceived to benefit financially from the published work, such as drug companies, or foundations supported by entities that could be perceived to have a financial stake in the outcome. Public funding sources, such as the NIH or the MRC, need not be disclosed. For example, if the NIH sponsored a piece of work you have been involved in but drugs were provided by a pharmaceutical company, you need only list the pharmaceutical company.

4. Financial relationships involving your spouse or partner or your children (under 18 years of age).

If monies from the types of relationships listed in Section 3 were paid to your spouse or partner or dependent children, please list the type of activity and source of the money.

5. Nonfinancial associations.

Please report any personal, professional, political, institutional, religious, or other associations that a reasonable reader would want to know about in relation to the submitted work.

The purpose of this form is to provide readers of your manuscript with information about your other interests that could influence how they receive and understand your work. The form has five parts.

1. Identifying information.

Each author should submit a separate form. Provide complete information and double-check the manuscript number. If you are NOT the corresponding author please insert his or her name.

2. The work under consideration for publication.

Please provide information about the work that you have submitted for publication. The time frame for this reporting is that of the work itself, from the initial conception and planning to the present. The idea is to provide for the reader information about resources that you received, either directly or indirectly (via your institution), to enable you to complete the work. If you check the "No" box it means that you did the work without receiving any financial support from any third party -- that is, the work was supported by funds from the same institution that pays your salary and that institution did not receive third-party funds to pay you. If you or your institution did receive funds from a third party to support the work, check "Yes" along with the appropriate boxes to indicate the type of support and whether you or your institution received it.

3. Relevant financial activities outside the submitted work.

Please report all sources of revenue relevant to the submitted work that accrued either directly to you or were paid to your institution on your behalf over the 36 months prior to submission of the work. This should include all monies from sources with relevance to the submitted work, not just monies from the entity that sponsored the research. If there is any question, it is usually better to disclose a relationship than not to do so. Please note that your interactions with the work's sponsor outside the submitted work should be listed here. For each category list each entity on a separate line. Use as many lines as necessary to provide complete information. In addition, please disclose relationships that fall outside the 36-month window that readers may want to know about and could reasonably criticize you for not disclosing (for example, long-term financial relationships that are now ended).

The goal of this section is to provide information for our reviewers and readers about your interactions with entities in the bio-medical arena that could be perceived to influence, or that give the appearance of potentially influencing, what you wrote in the submitted work. You should disclose interactions with ANY entity that could be considered broadly relevant to the work. For example, if your article is about testing an epidermal growth factor receptor (EGFR) antagonist in lung cancer, you should report all associations with entities pursuing diagnostic or therapeutic strategies in cancer in general, not just in the area of EGFR or lung cancer. For grants you have received for work outside the submitted work, you should disclose support ONLY from entities that could be perceived to benefit financially from the published work, such as drug companies, or foundations supported by entities that could be perceived to have a financial stake in the outcome. Public funding sources, such as the NIH or the MRC, need not be disclosed. For example, if the NIH sponsored a piece of work you have been involved in but drugs were provided by a pharmaceutical company, you need only list the pharmaceutical company.

4. Financial relationships involving your spouse or partner or your children (under 18 years of age).

If monies from the types of relationships listed in Section 3 were paid to your spouse or partner or dependent children, please list the type of activity and source of the money.

5. Nonfinancial associations.

Please report any personal, professional, political, institutional, religious, or other associations that a reasonable reader would want to know about in relation to the submitted work.

INSTRUCTIONS:

The purpose of this form is to provide readers of your manuscript with information about your other interests that could influence how they receive and understand your work. The form has five parts.

1. Identifying information.

Each author should submit a separate form. Provide complete information and double-check the manuscript number. If you are NOT the corresponding author please insert his or her name.

2. The work under consideration for publication.

Please provide information about the work that you have submitted for publication. The time frame for this reporting is that of the work itself, from the initial conception and planning to the present. The idea is to provide for the reader information about resources that you received, either directly or indirectly (via your institution), to enable you to complete the work. If you check the "No" box it means that you did the work without receiving any financial support from any third party -- that is, the work was supported by funds from the same institution that pays your salary and that institution did not receive third-party funds to pay you. If you or your institution did receive funds from a third party to support the work, check "Yes" along with the appropriate boxes to indicate the type of support and whether you or your institution received it.

3. Relevant financial activities outside the submitted work.

Please report all sources of revenue relevant to the submitted work that accrued either directly to you or were paid to your institution on your behalf over the 36 months prior to submission of the work. This should include all monies from sources with relevance to the submitted work, not just monies from the entity that sponsored the research. If there is any question, it is usually better to disclose a relationship than not to do so. Please note that your interactions with the work's sponsor outside the submitted work should be listed here. For each category list each entity on a separate line. Use as many lines as necessary to provide complete information. In addition, please disclose relationships that fall outside the 36-month window that readers may want to know about and could reasonably criticize you for not disclosing (for example, long-term financial relationships that are now ended).

The goal of this section is to provide information for our reviewers and readers about your interactions with entities in the bio-medical arena that could be perceived to influence, or that give the appearance of potentially influencing, what you wrote in the submitted work. You should disclose interactions with ANY entity that could be considered broadly relevant to the work. For example, if your article is about testing an epidermal growth factor receptor (EGFR) antagonist in lung cancer, you should report all associations with entities pursuing diagnostic or therapeutic strategies in cancer in general, not just in the area of EGFR or lung cancer. For grants you have received for work outside the submitted work, you should disclose support ONLY from entities that could be perceived to benefit financially from the published work, such as drug companies, or foundations supported by entities that could be perceived to have a financial stake in the outcome. Public funding sources, such as the NIH or the MRC, need not be disclosed. For example, if the NIH sponsored a piece of work you have been involved in but drugs were provided by a pharmaceutical company, you need only list the pharmaceutical company.

4. Financial relationships involving your spouse or partner or your children (under 18 years of age).

If monies from the types of relationships listed in Section 3 were paid to your spouse or partner or dependent children, please list the type of activity and source of the money.

5. Nonfinancial associations.

Please report any personal, professional, political, institutional, religious, or other associations that a reasonable reader would want to know about in relation to the submitted work.

INSTRUCTIONS:

The purpose of this form is to provide readers of your manuscript with information about your other interests that could influence how they receive and understand your work. The form has five parts.

1. Identifying information.

Each author should submit a separate form. Provide complete information and double-check the manuscript number. If you are NOT the corresponding author please insert his or her name.

2. The work under consideration for publication.

Please provide information about the work that you have submitted for publication. The time frame for this reporting is that of the work itself, from the initial conception and planning to the present. The idea is to provide for the reader information about resources that you received, either directly or indirectly (via your institution), to enable you to complete the work. If you check the "No" box it means that you did the work without receiving any financial support from any third party -- that is, the work was supported by funds from the same institution that pays your salary and that institution did not receive third-party funds to pay you. If you or your institution did receive funds from a third party to support the work, check "Yes" along with the appropriate boxes to indicate the type of support and whether you or your institution received it.

3. Relevant financial activities outside the submitted work.

Please report all sources of revenue relevant to the submitted work that accrued either directly to you or were paid to your institution on your behalf over the 36 months prior to submission of the work. This should include all monies from sources with relevance to the submitted work, not just monies from the entity that sponsored the research. If there is any question, it is usually better to disclose a relationship than not to do so. Please note that your interactions with the work's sponsor outside the submitted work should be listed here. For each category list each entity on a separate line. Use as many lines as necessary to provide complete information. In addition, please disclose relationships that fall outside the 36-month window that readers may want to know about and could reasonably criticize you for not disclosing (for example, long-term financial relationships that are now ended).

The goal of this section is to provide information for our reviewers and readers about your interactions with entities in the bio-medical arena that could be perceived to influence, or that give the appearance of potentially influencing, what you wrote in the submitted work. You should disclose interactions with ANY entity that could be considered broadly relevant to the work. For example, if your article is about testing an epidermal growth factor receptor (EGFR) antagonist in lung cancer, you should report all associations with entities pursuing diagnostic or therapeutic strategies in cancer in general, not just in the area of EGFR or lung cancer. For grants you have received for work outside the submitted work, you should disclose support ONLY from entities that could be perceived to benefit financially from the published work, such as drug companies, or foundations supported by entities that could be perceived to have a financial stake in the outcome. Public funding sources, such as the NIH or the MRC, need not be disclosed. For example, if the NIH sponsored a piece of work you have been involved in but drugs were provided by a pharmaceutical company, you need only list the pharmaceutical company.

4. Financial relationships involving your spouse or partner or your children (under 18 years of age).

If monies from the types of relationships listed in Section 3 were paid to your spouse or partner or dependent children, please list the type of activity and source of the money.

5. Nonfinancial associations.

Please report any personal, professional, political, institutional, religious, or other associations that a reasonable reader would want to know about in relation to the submitted work.

INSTRUCTIONS:

The purpose of this form is to provide readers of your manuscript with information about your other interests that could influence how they receive and understand your work. The form has five parts.

1. Identifying information.

Each author should submit a separate form. Provide complete information and double-check the manuscript number. If you are NOT the corresponding author please insert his or her name.

2. The work under consideration for publication.

Please provide information about the work that you have submitted for publication. The time frame for this reporting is that of the work itself, from the initial conception and planning to the present. The idea is to provide for the reader information about resources that you received, either directly or indirectly (via your institution), to enable you to complete the work. If you check the "No" box it means that you did the work without receiving any financial support from any third party -- that is, the work was supported by funds from the same institution that pays your salary and that institution did not receive third-party funds to pay you. If you or your institution did receive funds from a third party to support the work, check "Yes" along with the appropriate boxes to indicate the type of support and whether you or your institution received it.

3. Relevant financial activities outside the submitted work.

Please report all sources of revenue relevant to the submitted work that accrued either directly to you or were paid to your institution on your behalf over the 36 months prior to submission of the work. This should include all monies from sources with relevance to the submitted work, not just monies from the entity that sponsored the research. If there is any question, it is usually better to disclose a relationship than not to do so. Please note that your interactions with the work's sponsor outside the submitted work should be listed here. For each category list each entity on a separate line. Use as many lines as necessary to provide complete information. In addition, please disclose relationships that fall outside the 36-month window that readers may want to know about and could reasonably criticize you for not disclosing (for example, long-term financial relationships that are now ended).

The goal of this section is to provide information for our reviewers and readers about your interactions with entities in the biomedical arena that could be perceived to influence, or that give the appearance of potentially influencing, what you wrote in the submitted work. You should disclose interactions with ANY entity that could be considered broadly relevant to the work. For example, if your article is about testing an epidermal growth factor receptor (EGFR) antagonist in lung cancer, you should report all associations with entities pursuing diagnostic or therapeutic strategies in cancer in general, not just in the area of EGFR or lung cancer. For grants you have received for work outside the submitted work, you should disclose support ONLY from entities that could be perceived to benefit financially from the published work, such as drug companies, or foundations supported by entities that could be perceived to have a financial stake in the outcome. Public funding sources, such as the NIH or the MRC, need not be disclosed. For example, if the NIH sponsored a piece of work you have been involved in but drugs were provided by a pharmaceutical company, you need only list the pharmaceutical company.

4. Financial relationships involving your spouse or partner or your children (under 18 years of age).

If monies from the types of relationships listed in Section 3 were paid to your spouse or partner or dependent children, please list the type of activity and source of the money.

5. Nonfinancial associations.

Please report any personal, professional, political, institutional, religious, or other associations that a reasonable reader would want to know about in relation to the submitted work.

Section 3. Information about relevant financial relationships outside the submitted work.

Place a check in the appropriate boxes in the table to indicate whether you have financial relationships (regardless of amount of compensation) with any entities that have an interest related to the submitted work. Use one line for each entity; add as many lines as you need. Use the comments column to indicate any additional information that you think a reader or editor would want to know about the compensation. Report relationships that were present during the 36 months prior to submission. In addition please disclose relationships that fall outside the 36-month window that readers may want to know about and could reasonably criticize you for not disclosing (for example, long-term financial relationships that are now ended).

INSTRUCTIONS:

The purpose of this form is to provide readers of your manuscript with information about your other interests that could influence how they receive and understand your work. The form has five parts.

1. Identifying information.

Each author should submit a separate form. Provide complete information and double-check the manuscript number. If you are NOT the corresponding author please insert his or her name.

2. The work under consideration for publication.

Please provide information about the work that you have submitted for publication. The time frame for this reporting is that of the work itself, from the initial conception and planning to the present. The idea is to provide for the reader information about resources that you received, either directly or indirectly (via your institution), to enable you to complete the work. If you check the "No" box it means that you did the work without receiving any financial support from any third party -- that is, the work was supported by funds from the same institution that pays your salary and that institution did not receive third-party funds to pay you. If you or your institution did receive funds from a third party to support the work, check "Yes" along with the appropriate boxes to indicate the type of support and whether you or your institution received it.

3. Relevant financial activities outside the submitted work.

Please report all sources of revenue relevant to the submitted work that accrued either directly to you or were paid to your institution on your behalf over the 36 months prior to submission of the work. This should include all monies from sources with relevance to the submitted work, not just monies from the entity that sponsored the research. If there is any question, it is usually better to disclose a relationship than not to do so. Please note that your interactions with the work's sponsor outside the submitted work should be listed here. For each category list each entity on a separate line. Use as many lines as necessary to provide complete information. In addition, please disclose relationships that fall outside the 36-month window that readers may want to know about and could reasonably criticize you for not disclosing (for example, long-term financial relationships that are now ended).

The goal of this section is to provide information for our reviewers and readers about your interactions with entities in the bio-medical arena that could be perceived to influence, or that give the appearance of potentially influencing, what you wrote in the submitted work. You should disclose interactions with ANY entity that could be considered broadly relevant to the work. For example, if your article is about testing an epidermal growth factor receptor (EGFR) antagonist in lung cancer, you should report all associations with entities pursuing diagnostic or therapeutic strategies in cancer in general, not just in the area of EGFR or lung cancer. For grants you have received for work outside the submitted work, you should disclose support ONLY from entities that could be perceived to benefit financially from the published work, such as drug companies, or foundations supported by entities that could be perceived to have a financial stake in the outcome. Public funding sources, such as the NIH or the MRC, need not be disclosed. For example, if the NIH sponsored a piece of work you have been involved in but drugs were provided by a pharmaceutical company, you need only list the pharmaceutical company.

4. Financial relationships involving your spouse or partner or your children (under 18 years of age).

If monies from the types of relationships listed in Section 3 were paid to your spouse or partner or dependent children, please list the type of activity and source of the money.

5. Nonfinancial associations.

Please report any personal, professional, political, institutional, religious, or other associations that a reasonable reader would want to know about in relation to the submitted work.

1. Identifying information.

Each author should submit a separate form. Provide complete information and double-check the manuscript number. If you are NOT the corresponding author please insert his or her name.

2. The work under consideration for publication.

Please provide information about the work that you have submitted for publication. The time frame for this reporting is that of the work itself, from the initial conception and planning to the present. The idea is to provide for the reader information about resources that you received, either directly or indirectly (via your institution), to enable you to complete the work. If you check the "No" box it means that you did the work without receiving any financial support from any third party -- that is, the work was supported by funds from the same institution that pays your salary and that institution did not receive third-party funds to pay you. If you or your institution did receive funds from a third party to support the work, check "Yes" along with the appropriate boxes to indicate the type of support and whether you or your institution received it.

3. Relevant financial activities outside the submitted work.

Please report all sources of revenue relevant to the submitted work that accrued either directly to you or were paid to your institution on your behalf over the 36 months prior to submission of the work. This should include all monies from sources with relevance to the submitted work, not just monies from the entity that sponsored the research. If there is any question, it is usually better to disclose a relationship than not to do so. Please note that your interactions with the work's sponsor outside the submitted work should be listed here. For each category list each entity on a separate line. Use as many lines as necessary to provide complete information. In addition, please disclose relationships that fall outside the 36-month window that readers may want to know about and could reasonably criticize you for not disclosing (for example, long-term financial relationships that are now ended).

The goal of this section is to provide information for our reviewers and readers about your interactions with entities in the biomedical arena that could be perceived to influence, or that give the appearance of potentially influencing, what you wrote in the submitted work. You should disclose interactions with ANY entity that could be considered broadly relevant to the work. For example, if your article is about testing an epidermal growth factor receptor (EGFR) antagonist in lung cancer, you should report all associations with entities pursuing diagnostic or therapeutic strategies in cancer in general, not just in the area of EGFR or lung cancer. For grants you have received for work outside the submitted work, you should disclose support ONLY from entities that could be perceived to benefit financially from the published work, such as drug companies, or foundations supported by entities that could be perceived to have a financial stake in the outcome. Public funding sources, such as the NIH or the MRC, need not be disclosed. For example, if the NIH sponsored a piece of work you have been involved in but drugs were provided by a pharmaceutical company, you need only list the pharmaceutical company.

4. Financial relationships involving your spouse or partner or your children (under 18 years of age).

If monies from the types of relationships listed in Section 3 were paid to your spouse or partner or dependent children, please list the type of activity and source of the money.

5. Nonfinancial associations.

Please report any personal, professional, political, institutional, religious, or other associations that a reasonable reader would want to know about in relation to the submitted work.

INSTRUCTIONS:

The purpose of this form is to provide readers of your manuscript with information about your other interests that could influence how they receive and understand your work. The form has five parts.

1. Identifying information.

Each author should submit a separate form. Provide complete information and double-check the manuscript number. If you are NOT the corresponding author please insert his or her name.

2. The work under consideration for publication.

Please provide information about the work that you have submitted for publication. The time frame for this reporting is that of the work itself, from the initial conception and planning to the present. The idea is to provide for the reader information about resources that you received, either directly or indirectly (via your institution), to enable you to complete the work. If you check the "No" box it means that you did the work without receiving any financial support from any third party -- that is, the work was supported by funds from the same institution that pays your salary and that institution did not receive third-party funds to pay you. If you or your institution did receive funds from a third party to support the work, check "Yes" along with the appropriate boxes to indicate the type of support and whether you or your institution received it.

3. Relevant financial activities outside the submitted work.

Please report all sources of revenue relevant to the submitted work that accrued either directly to you or were paid to your institution on your behalf over the 36 months prior to submission of the work. This should include all monies from sources with relevance to the submitted work, not just monies from the entity that sponsored the research. If there is any question, it is usually better to disclose a relationship than not to do so. Please note that your interactions with the work's sponsor outside the submitted work should be listed here. For each category list each entity on a separate line. Use as many lines as necessary to provide complete information. In addition, please disclose relationships that fall outside the 36-month window that readers may want to know about and could reasonably criticize you for not disclosing (for example, long-term financial relationships that are now ended).

The goal of this section is to provide information for our reviewers and readers about your interactions with entities in the biomedical arena that could be perceived to influence, or that give the appearance of potentially influencing, what you wrote in the submitted work. You should disclose interactions with ANY entity that could be considered broadly relevant to the work. For example, if your article is about testing an epidermal growth factor receptor (EGFR) antagonist in lung cancer, you should report all associations with entities pursuing diagnostic or therapeutic strategies in cancer in general, not just in the area of EGFR or lung cancer. For grants you have received for work outside the submitted work, you should disclose support ONLY from entities that could be perceived to benefit financially from the published work, such as drug companies, or foundations supported by entities that could be perceived to have a financial stake in the outcome. Public funding sources, such as the NIH or the MRC, need not be disclosed. For example, if the NIH sponsored a piece of work you have been involved in but drugs were provided by a pharmaceutical company, you need only list the pharmaceutical company.

4. Financial relationships involving your spouse or partner or your children (under 18 years of age).

If monies from the types of relationships listed in Section 3 were paid to your spouse or partner or dependent children, please list the type of activity and source of the money.

5. Nonfinancial associations.

Please report any personal, professional, political, institutional, religious, or other associations that a reasonable reader would want to know about in relation to the submitted work.

INSTRUCTIONS:

The purpose of this form is to provide readers of your manuscript with information about your other interests that could influence how they receive and understand your work. The form has five parts.

1. Identifying information.

Each author should submit a separate form. Provide complete information and double-check the manuscript number. If you are NOT the corresponding author please insert his or her name.

2. The work under consideration for publication.

Please provide information about the work that you have submitted for publication. The time frame for this reporting is that of the work itself, from the initial conception and planning to the present. The idea is to provide for the reader information about resources that you received, either directly or indirectly (via your institution), to enable you to complete the work. If you check the "No" box it means that you did the work without receiving any financial support from any third party -- that is, the work was supported by funds from the same institution that pays your salary and that institution did not receive third-party funds to pay you. If you or your institution did receive funds from a third party to support the work, check "Yes" along with the appropriate boxes to indicate the type of support and whether you or your institution received it.

3. Relevant financial activities outside the submitted work.

Please report all sources of revenue relevant to the submitted work that accrued either directly to you or were paid to your institution on your behalf over the 36 months prior to submission of the work. This should include all monies from sources with relevance to the submitted work, not just monies from the entity that sponsored the research. If there is any question, it is usually better to disclose a relationship than not to do so. Please note that your interactions with the work's sponsor outside the submitted work should be listed here. For each category list each entity on a separate line. Use as many lines as necessary to provide complete information. In addition, please disclose relationships that fall outside the 36-month window that readers may want to know about and could reasonably criticize you for not disclosing (for example, long-term financial relationships that are now ended).

The goal of this section is to provide information for our reviewers and readers about your interactions with entities in the bio-medical arena that could be perceived to influence, or that give the appearance of potentially influencing, what you wrote in the submitted work. You should disclose interactions with ANY entity that could be considered broadly relevant to the work. For example, if your article is about testing an epidermal growth factor receptor (EGFR) antagonist in lung cancer, you should report all associations with entities pursuing diagnostic or therapeutic strategies in cancer in general, not just in the area of EGFR or lung cancer. For grants you have received for work outside the submitted work, you should disclose support ONLY from entities that could be perceived to benefit financially from the published work, such as drug companies, or foundations supported by entities that could be perceived to have a financial stake in the outcome. Public funding sources, such as the NIH or the MRC, need not be disclosed. For example, if the NIH sponsored a piece of work you have been involved in but drugs were provided by a pharmaceutical company, you need only list the pharmaceutical company.

4. Financial relationships involving your spouse or partner or your children (under 18 years of age).

If monies from the types of relationships listed in Section 3 were paid to your spouse or partner or dependent children, please list the type of activity and source of the money.

5. Nonfinancial associations.

Please report any personal, professional, political, institutional, religious, or other associations that a reasonable reader would want to know about in relation to the submitted work.
